Cloverleaf Animal Clinic is firmly committed to maintaining a drug-free work place and has a responsibility to provide a safe work environment for employees and to prevent injuries to the general public. Therefore, reporting to work under the influence of or working while impaired by alcohol or unprescribed or illegal narcotics or drugs, or using, possessing, selling, buying or transferring unprescribed or illegal narcotics or drugs off company premises is prohibited.

Consistent with our objective to maintain a drug-free workplace, we may require applicants accepted for employment to pass a drug test as part of our application process. All offers of employment are contingent upon satisfactory results of a drug-screening test. You must satisfactorily pass the company's drug screen test. If you are hired by Cloverleaf animal Clinic, you may be required, from time to time, to submit to drug and alcohol screening tests to determine compliance with the company's policy to provide a drug-free workplace. Cooperation in submitting to such tests is a condition of employment, and failure to cooperate will be grounds for immediate termination.

This application will be considered active for 30 days. After this time, an applicant may be required to submit a new application in order to be considered for employment.
